WAYNE, Tr., Sept. 5th, '59. The political campaign of the season be ing fairly opened, and the different standard bearers being fairly announced, it is the privilege of every good citizen to canvas the codents of the various candidates, and make his choice accordingly. The nomina tion of the Black Republicans, for Senator was given to F. P. Cuppy, who, bye-the-bye is a gentleman of some considerable noto riety as a pettifog, bank note shaver, pawn broker, anti-usury man, and dealer in flax Barthen and Plated Ware straw, and all other defunct ragged issues generally. As the founder of Know Nothing Lodges, in Wayne township, he stood preceminant, and his denunciations of the dirty Dutch and Irish, have not since or before 1854, had a parallel in Montgomery ounty, or any other place, outside of Baltimore, where the plug uglies rule supreme And as a 5 per cent per month shaver, his Lively Times. abilities are too well known to the citizens of Dayton, to merit even a passing notice more than that peculiar shave which brought him into the Flax Straw business, With respect to his dealings in affidavits, his peculiar abilities were amply displayed in the contest between Valiandigham and the Butler Pony, in which case his affidavits were treated with as much respect as a mad-dog in a camp meeting. Yet his peculiar proclivities for dirty work, gave him an advantage over his confederate, Mr. Parrott, so as to secure him a higher position on the Republican ticket, from the fact that he outsans affidavits, sans effecting Normino, &c. Now since the spirit of Mr. Cuppy has beof a leader in the Spiritual Church, he is no
